

Secondary School Theatre Festival

January 14-15, 2011

Greenville, SC

The purpose of the Festival is to give high school theatre students an opportunity to sharpen their skills through competitions, interact with colleges and audition/interview for scholarships and programs, and to be encouraged by Christians working in the theatre. Students in public, private and home school settings are invited to attend!

- Events include: solo and duo auditions, musical and dramatic group scenes, one act plays, set design and more; complete list of guidelines available at www.cita.org
- Interact with hundreds of other Christian theatre artists and students from around the US
- Teachers/parents: an opportunity to fellowship, workshop and network with your peers

Your College or University can be a part of this dynamic event!

- Display and/or advertise for your school
- Meet high school students from private schools and home school networks
- Sit in on competitions, audition and interview students and attend performances
- Present your program at the College Fair, offer scholarships, and recruit!

How you can participate:

- Email admin@cita.org to reserve a display spot and/or an ad in the program; you must reserve a display table to attend – festival begins Friday at 1 pm and concludes Saturday evening with a final round and awards ceremony
- Tell us who will attend (names/titles)
- Hotel reservations available at the nearby Courtyard Marriott Downtown Greenville

Fees to participate:

- Display table: $200 for 8' table (specify if you need electricity)
- Advertising: $150 per 4" X 6" black and white spot
- Break sponsors: $500 for snack break for participants (3 breaks available): your name will be listed in the program (and you get a free AD), and mentioned at the general sessions
